The Po Delta Park as you have never seen it before. All 17 municipalities of the Po Delta Park are featured in the wonderful videos produced by GAL DELTA 2000, in co-operation with Edizioni Studio IGPI, as part of the GAL 19.2.02.14B DESTINAZIONE TURISTICA DELTA DEL PO project funded by the Emilia-Romagna Region 2014-2020 Rural Development Programme, which can be viewed both on the www.deltadelpo.eu website and on the Po Delta Park YouTube channel. From the coast to the hinterland, from the waters of the Great River to those of the Adriatic Sea, for a journey travelling deep into the heart of a unique territory that since 2015 has been a UNESCO MAB Biosphere Reserve.

The videos, each lasting just over three minutes, use images to describe the artistic, landscape and natural beauty of the area, taking the user on an evocative journey through the beauty of the places narrated. There is no accompanying voice but only a musical accompaniment, in order to enhance the unique characteristics that distinguish each of the municipalities presented even more.

From Alfonsine, birthplace of the poet Vincenzo Monti and filming location, to Argenta, an island of biodiversity and gateway to the wetlands; from Bagnacavallo, an enchanting medieval village, to Cervia, the city of salt and sea; from Comacchio, with its network of bridges and canals, to Ravenna, the undisputed home of mosaics and birthplace of the Supreme Poet Dante. All of this will take you on a journey through the rice fields of Jolanda, the Bassano-related locations of Codigoro, the land reclaimed areas of Conselice and Lagosanto, the archaeological site of Russi, the countryside in Fiscaglia, the Great Mesola wood, the mussel farms in Goro, the landscapes of the Great River in Riva del Po, the Delizia del Verginese in Portomaggiore, and the Ostellato Valleys.

To conclude this journey in the best possible way, the last video describes the four seasons of the Po Delta Park, each of which provides varied, highly original scenarios: autumn with its warm auburn colours and its landscapes of a thousand hues; winter with its romantic mist that makes
